

Archbishop Brunett will be joining us on Monday, June 29th to celebrate Holy Mass for the camp participants and to join us for dinner. He will speak with us about his own vocational discernment and life as a priest of Jesus Christ!

QUO VADIS DAYS

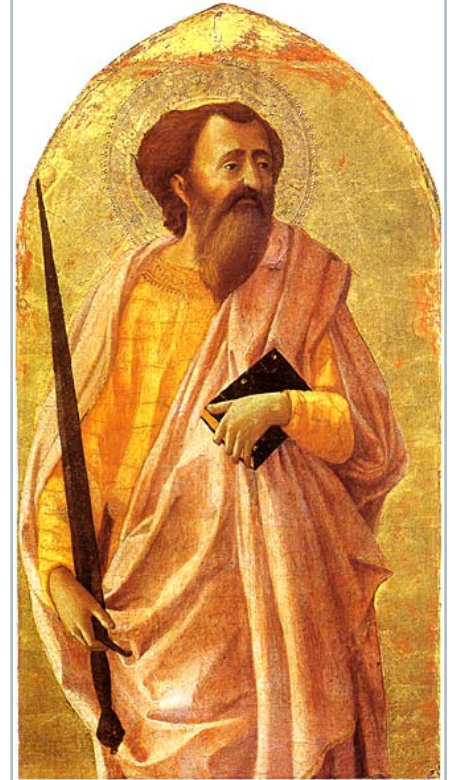

“Imitate St. Paul in following Jesus”
—Pope Benedict

In order to respond to the call of God and start on our journey, it is not necessary to be already perfect. Weaknesses and human limitations do not present an obstacle, as long as they help make us more aware of the fact that we are in need of the redeeming grace of Christ. This is the experience of St Paul who confessed: “I will all the more gladly boast of my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me” (2Cor 12,9).

—Message of His Holiness Pope Benedict for the 43rd World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Quo Vadis?

Where are you going?

"Quo Vadis" is the Latin phrase for "Where are you going?" Legend tells us that St. Peter asked Jesus this question on the outskirts of Rome. And we know where Jesus went in response to His Father's will.

Quo Vadis Days is a 3-day camp for young Catholic men to learn more about the priesthood, to deepen their faith, and to better discern God's call in their lives.

What is the Father's will for me? How can I know what God wants?

Quo Vadis Days is a camp experience sponsored by the Archdiocese of Seattle Vocations Office to provide a time of fun, prayer, and talks to help you explore the Lord's call in your life.

There will be priests, seminarians, and other young men like you gathered together for these days. Our activities will include prayer, swimming, talks and discussions.

We hope that you will consider taking time to discern the Lord's will in your life with us at QVDays. It is a great opportunity to let the Lord speak to you and to spend time listening to Him.

The number of participants will be limited, so call or register soon!
